

CV IMPORTANT

1. SOVEREIGNTY

Meaning:

Sovereignty means the supreme, final power of a nation to make decisions inside and outside its territory. It tells that the country is independent and no other country or authority can control it.

Definition:

“Sovereignty is the highest authority of a state which is free from both internal and external control.”

Nature:

1. Absolute: The state has complete control over law-making and administration.
2. Indivisible: This power cannot be divided between groups.
3. Permanent: Sovereignty continues even if governments change.
4. Universal: Applies to all individuals, institutions, and organisations within the country.

Importance:

1. Ensures the country's freedom and independence
2. Helps the government maintain law and order
3. Allows the nation to create foreign policies
4. Protects the country from outside interference
5. Strengthens national identity and unity

2. SOCIALISM

Meaning:

Socialism is a value that aims to create a fair society by reducing rich–poor differences. It focuses on social welfare, equal opportunities, and protection of weaker sections. It encourages the idea that everyone should have basic needs like food, education, health, and housing.

Definition:

“Socialism is a system where resources and wealth are distributed fairly and used for the welfare of all.”

Nature:

1. Emphasizes social and economic equality
2. Protects workers from exploitation
3. Government plays a major role in planning and controlling key industries
4. Focus on public welfare over private profit
5. Ensures equal chances for every citizen

Importance:

1. Reduces poverty and inequality
2. Provides social security and welfare services
3. Improves standards of living
4. Promotes justice and fairness
5. Protects vulnerable sections of society

Characteristics:

1. Equality and social justice
2. Welfare state
3. Protection of workers
4. Public ownership of major industries
5. Planned economy
6. Reduction of income gaps

Principles:

1. Fair distribution of wealth
2. End of exploitation
3. Equal opportunities
4. Public interest first
5. State responsibility for welfare

3. SECULARISM

Meaning:

Secularism means the state has no religion of its own and treats all religions equally. Citizens have full freedom to follow, change, or not follow any religion. The state stays neutral in religious matters.

Definition:

“Secularism is the principle where the state maintains equal respect and distance from all religions.”

Nature:

1. No official state religion
2. Equal protection to every religion
3. Prevention of religious domination
4. Freedom of belief and practice
5. Protection of minority communities

Importance:

1. Prevents religious discrimination
2. Maintains peace and harmony
3. Strengthens unity in a diverse society
4. Protects individual religious freedom
5. Avoids conflicts and religious violence

Characteristics:

1. Neutral state
2. Equality before law
3. Religious freedom
4. No religion-based laws
5. Protection of minorities

4. DEMOCRACY

Meaning:

Democracy is a form of government where people are the real source of power. Citizens elect representatives to govern the country. It ensures equality, freedom, participation, and justice for all.

Definition:

“Democracy is a government of the people, by the people, and for the people.”

Nature:

1. Based on popular sovereignty
2. Free and fair elections
3. Majority rule but minority rights protected
4. Rule of law—no one is above the law
5. Transparent government accountable to people
6. Fundamental rights and freedoms guaranteed

Importance:

1. Protects citizens' freedom and dignity
2. Allows peaceful change of government
3. Encourages participation in decision-making
4. Prevents dictatorship
5. Promotes equality and justice

Characteristics:

1. Free and fair elections
2. Political equality
3. Fundamental rights
4. Independent judiciary
5. Freedom of speech and media
6. Citizen participation
7. Accountability and transparency

Principles:

1. People's sovereignty
2. Rule of law
3. Majority rule with respect for minorities
4. Political equality
5. Protection of rights
6. Public participation

5. CITIZENSHIP

Meaning:

Citizenship is the legal membership of a person in a state. A citizen enjoys certain rights and also performs duties towards the nation. It gives a sense of identity and belonging to a community.

Definition:

“Citizenship is the legal status that gives an individual rights, duties, and belonging to a state.”

Nature:

1. Gives political, social, and economic rights
2. Requires duties like loyalty, paying taxes, voting
3. Can be gained by birth, descent, registration, or naturalization
4. Creates a bond between citizen and state
5. Includes both rights and responsibilities

Importance:

1. Provides identity and protection
2. Allows participation in governance
3. Ensures access to basic rights
4. Builds responsible citizens
5. Strengthens national unity

6. HUMAN RIGHTS

Meaning:

Human rights are the basic rights and freedoms that belong to every person regardless of nationality, gender, religion, or race. These rights are necessary for leading a life of dignity, equality, and freedom.

Definition:

“Human rights are universal rights that all humans are entitled to for a life of dignity and freedom.”

Nature:

1. Universal (for everyone)
2. Inherent (by birth, not given by government)
3. Inalienable (cannot be taken away)
4. Protected by national and international laws
5. Focus on dignity, equality, and justice

Importance:

1. Protect individuals from abuse and injustice
2. Promote equality and fairness
3. Support democracy and peace
4. Ensure basic freedoms (speech, life, education, health)
5. Help maintain global harmony and security